

A Week in the Life of an Early American Child

June 29 to July 2, 2009***
The Thankful Arnold House
Haddam, CT

Travel back in time to the year 1830 and spend a week with Mrs. Thankful Arnold in her home in Haddam. Participate in activities and chores inside and outside the home. Learn how to care for farm animals; sew a copy book; card, spin and weave wool; make butter; bake bread; play games; and even dance!

For Girls and Boys ages 8-12
All sessions at The Thankful Arnold House
14 Hayden Hill Rd. Haddam, CT

*Morning sessions 9 am to noon on June 29, June 30, and July 1
Full day session on Thursday, July 2 from 9 am to 3 pm
Fee: $130 per student

Please contact Sarah Neal, Education Coordinator, at education@haddamhistory.org or call The Haddam Historical Society at 860 345-2400 for additional information

Application form available online at www.haddamhistory.org

A Week in the Life of an Early American Child